

South Australia's Leading Practice Mining Acts Review

Government of South Australia
Department of State Development

The Department of State Development is currently undertaking a comprehensive review of South Australia's mining legislation to modernise the regulation of our State's mineral resources industry. You can find out more about the Review, including the recently released Discussion Papers, at:

- YourSay website: - <http://yoursay.sa.gov.au/decisions/yoursay-engagements-mining-laws/about>, and
- Minerals website: minerals.statedevelopment.sa.gov.au/exploration/leading_practice_mining_acts_review

The Department encourages all South Australians to provide input into the Review, and we are committed to talking with as many locals as possible across the State about how we can improve our mining legislation for the future. We look forward to talking with you at the following upcoming drop-in sessions:
